

Sacred Space for Your Own
SoulCollage® Practice-
A Retreat for SoulCollage® Facilitators

June 19-21, 2015
Santa Sabina Retreat Center
San Rafael, California

with Facilitator Connie Beall and guests

Imagine an entire weekend devoted to your SoulCollage® practice. Time to immerse yourself in images, creating new cards for your deck, and diving deeply into the wisdom your already created cards hold for you, both in silence and in the joyful company of old and new friends, your fellow SoulCollage® facilitators. You are fed delicious meals, you can sit in a lovely garden courtyard listening to the birds, meditate in the peaceful chapel or walk in the hills surrounding this urban retreat center. The focus will be on card making and reading with an optional break-out group on Saturday afternoon. Come to re-energize your SoulCollage® experience and relax.

The retreat will held at the beautiful Santa Sabina Retreat Center in San Rafael, California. There is easy in and out access with major airports and shuttles nearby. Add a few extra days and experience the beautiful San Francisco Bay Area. Extra nights on either end of the retreat could be available by contacting Santa Sabina after registration.

Past participants have said: 'A perfect weekend of SoulTending and creative fun.' 'You created a wonderful time of sanctuary and creativity.'

All supplies and materials are provided. Retreat cost includes 2 nights in a single room with shared bath and 6 meals.

Retreat begins at 3pm Friday afternoon and ends at 2pm Sunday afternoon.
